April 2026

Greetings in Jesus name!

We pray that this issue of The Minuteman finds all of you strong in the faith and living in the peace and joy of our Lord Jesus Christ. Isaiah 26:3

This months' issue will help to expose to many some of the lies and deceptions that we have all been exposed to by ever increasing manipulative and controlling tyranny. No doubt it will anger some. Having our eyes opened to the mass deception we have all been led into is not a pleasant experience. As someone once said, "It is far easier to deceive someone than it is to convince them they have been deceived". But an honest individual, if he is honest, will admit that he has been deceived or he will cease being honest!

We certainly have been deceived again, into another unjust and immoral war. As I explained and exposed on Tuesday night's broadcast, America has been transformed into an end times empire. All empires end in violence. America will be no different, as we taught in the three hour teaching entitled "America in Prophecy". The future of our "once" blessed nation is explained clearly in God's Word. Let us not be deceived any longer! Payday is coming! (Galatians 6:7)

We must remember and be assured of the fact that no matter what the future holds, God is already there!

We love you in Christ!

In Christ's service,

Pastor Butch Paugh

The Three D's! Diversity! Destruction and Damnation!

The title of this article will certainly upset many including many followers of Christ who have been force-fed and brainwashed into believing the lie that we must accept all lifestyles, religions and cultures. That is a damnable lie and deception of hell that has been used to destroy nations all throughout history. There has never been a truly multicultural society that did not inevitably descend into chaos! Eventually one culture must overpower the influence and control of the others and become predominant! The once united society that worked, existed and prospered "together" becomes divided into factions or "tribes", each one vying for control and dominance by any and all means possible. The dissention and division usually starts with words and the exchange of ideas but it will escalate into violence at some point!

Let's first look at the word 'culture' so we can better understand why a society that embraces multiculturalism will destroy itself from the inside out!

Culture – the shared set of beliefs, values, customs, behaviors and artifacts that define a group, shaping how members perceive and interact with their world. It is learned, passed down through generations and includes elements like language, religion, social habits, arts and food. Culture builds identity, provides social structure and defines norms.

All the aspects listed in the above definition are established on one foundation only! Religion! So the final factor that will dominate a society (nation) is which religion gains dominance! Religions, by the very nature of religion itself, cannot compromise its core beliefs and remain a true religion. They then become "preferences"! A religion, by its very nature cannot be "diluted" by other beliefs and remain as the dominate influence in a culture! It will be destroyed! As will the culture it once influenced!

If we will be honest in the evaluation of cultures and nations they influence, we can plainly see how the controlling of religious beliefs has affected that particular society. I am not even going to attempt to point out the effects the many religions have had on nations all around the world. I am going to make one statement that is sure to offend many, but for those who haven't lost the ability or desire to reason and learn, this will resonate as a totally truthful statement. All nations that were founded on faith in Jesus Christ as The Creator and Sustainer of all things have outperformed all others immensely in every way! Unfortunately, because the "church" has allowed through ignorance (Hosea 4:6), apathy, indifference (Revelation 3:15-16) and deception (Matthew 24:4 & Galatians 6:7), it has tolerated the foundation of Christ's Word (law) to be undermined (Ephesians 2:20). The Christian culture was diluted and undermined to the point that it could no longer sustain their societies (Psalms 9:17 and 11:3).

The ones given the command to be salt and light to preserve and guide society have failed in their duties miserably! They have "tolerated" the removal of The Cornerstone upon which every sphere of man's life was to be anchored to and slept while evil minions chipped away and eventually destroyed the foundations their society was built on and sustained by (Ephesians 2:20, Psalms 11:3 & Colossians 1:17)

To boil it down to the lowest common denominator, there are only two "religions"! Christianity or satanism! Any religion outside or non adherent to the uncompromising faith in Jesus Christ is idolatry! All nations that have, are, or will follow Christ's law system to "create" their "culture" will prosper! (Proverbs 14:34)

An enemy does not need an overpowering force to invade and conquer a nation! They just have to plant the seeds (tares) of a different culture (religion) in and among a sleeping people to inevitably conquer another nation (culture) (Matthew 13:25).

In order to grasp the concept that all men and societies must accept a "religion", we must first understand that there has never been a non-religious individual! All mankind lives and "governs" their lives based on a belief system! "Their" religion! No matter how loudly they may protest this statement, it still remains factual! Men are, by nature, a religious entity! No matter how vehemently it is denied! Your life is built on and around a "religious" philosophy! It may mean you have "faith" in only yourself! But you still have faith in your belief system or religion! This faith is built on the religion known as humanism! The U.S. Supreme Court even had to rule and admit that humanism is a true religion!

Very few in America today have ever been taught that this "once" great nation truly was a Christian nation founded on Godly principles and doctrines! The thirteen original colonies had written in their covenants (constitutions) that anyone who ran for public office had to first profess their faith in God and in Christ as their Saviour! And that they believed in the precepts taught in both the Old and New Testaments! Take time to research this fact!

The undermining of this foundation began to be destroyed by the very document many truly believe to be the sustainer and foundation of our nation and our liberties! The U.S. Constitution! While there are many valid and solid fundamental truths written in this document, Article VI, clause 3 was the cancer that eventually allowed the erosion of civil government in America! Compromise and indifference to God's standards always leads to the destruction of societies!

Up until the 1965 Immigration Act changed this, the immigrants from Asian and Latin America were strictly controlled. Up until then, immigration laws preferred immigrants from Northern/Western European nations. There was a very important reason for this restriction! The European countries were much more in line with the values and standard of America's Christian heritage! The Asian and Middle Eastern religions would not, and usually could not, be assimilated into American culture. That was accepted as a basic concept to maintain our "culture" based on Godly teachings. Lyndon Johnson and his administration realized that and changed the immigration laws to "eat" away at our foundations! Sadly, it has worked very well! When a people cannot be conquered through outward force, all that has to be done is to introduce a "cancer" to eat away and destroy from the inside out!

As an important point of interest that should be made, is the fact that in addition to greatly helping destroy our nation through making the invasion of heathen cultures much easier, the senator, Lyndon Johnson, deceived the "uneducated" churches in America into surrendering their authority through Christ to the IRS! Please research this issue to understand this hugely important issue.

Now we can easily see the results of this act of sabotage and treason! Whole communities and cities have been "taken over" by heathen religions! The damnable Muslim religion has so powerfully infiltrated some areas that they are now electing Muslim adherents to public offices! Their communist, hedonistic "religious" beliefs now affect the whole nation! (1 Corinthians 5:6) The average IQ of Muslim nations is in the low 80's, while in the U.S., it's 110 or above. Faith in the one true God Jehovah and obeying His righteous laws actually increases a peoples' intellect and intelligence! Obviously, the dumbing down of America is proof of this fact!

America started her descent into hell long before 1965, but it has quickly picked up the fall since the 1960's in every way possible! Every aspect of a once great society has been undermined and destroyed! (Psalms 9:17 & Proverbs 14:34) Financially, educationally and morally! Now, we have descended into a moral abyss and chaos! We are on the verge of a "civil war" in our midst! Cultures are clashing! Destruction is our destiny!

This outcome cannot be changed now! The "cancer" is far too advanced! And the "sheeple" in our country continue to vote someone in office who says they will turn the nation around and "save" U.S.! We continue to curse ourselves! (Jeremiah 17:5)

In closing this article, I will make one last statement of rock solid truth! (Matthew 7:24-27) America, because of a callous and careless "church" must be judged severely! But, praise God! It is not too late for you and me to repent and turn from our foolish and wicked ways! Salvation is still available for all those who sincerely put their faith in Jesus Christ! (Ephesians 2:5-10)

The Terrorists We Invited Among Us

The most destructive act that began the dismantling of the United States of America began with the 1965 Immigration Reform Act. It opened America's immigration to 1.1 million legal immigrants annually. It jumped our population from 194 million in 1965 to our current 350 million. Since that moment, we now endure in excess of 50 million foreign-born and another 25 million illegal foreign-born people from mostly Third World countries. The worst aspect of that Act stems from the fact that Congress started importing incompatible cultures, religions and backward civilizations. The worst of them plays out in cities like Dearborn, Michigan, where Muslims are now creating their own Islamic Caliphate. Right here in America!

If you visit Dearborn, and I did last summer, you see all Arabic writing on businesses, burka-covered women, Sharia Law being practiced, five calls to Allah daily over loudspeakers, Muslims with their butts up to the sky all over the streets, and mosques everywhere surrounded by walls. It's a "no go" zone for Americans in America. There is no freedom for any other religion in Dearborn.

Dearborn, Michigan — the 12th Congressional District, represented by Rashida Tlaib (a Palestinian Muslim), is witnessing alarming calls for the overthrow of the United States government.

"The American empire must fall. There are individuals, both young and old, ready to sacrifice everything to see this empire dismantled. Americans are uncivilized and backward. Allah sent us to civilize them because they are the lowest form of human nature. Christians are jealous of us. Their nation is dying." -David J Harris Jr, Muslim imam in Dearborn, MI.

Those same Muslims chant, "Death to America" with conviction that they will someday in the future, turn America into another Muslim country. VIDEO
<https://twitter.com/i/status/1994184601946726876>

In the meantime, our immigration laws allowed 9/11 to happen when U.S. Senator Charles Schumer passed a law in New York to give Muhammed Atta a driver's license along with his 18 terrorist buddies from Saudi Arabia that drove jet planes into the Twin Towers. Schumer's actions guaranteed the deaths of over 3,000 people in the towers.

If you fast forward to 2025, our country features internal terrorists like illegal alien Ibarra who murdered and raped Laken Riley as she jogged on a trail at the University of Georgia. That's a mini-9/11 terrorist act by one person that destroyed that young lady's life.

Same with Kate Steinle who was killed by an illegal alien in San Francisco. Add that to: Jocelyn Nungaray, a 12-year-old girl who was murdered in Houston, Texas, in June 2024. Two Venezuelan men, here illegally, were charged with her capital murder. No matter because both Americans are still dead.

How about we now feature, according to the Department of Homeland Security, 23 to 27 honor killings by Muslims in the United States, annually? That means we've got internal Islamic terrorists murdering their female children because Sharia Law dominates. How did that happen in a First World Country?

What about that illegal alien on a NYC subway who set an old woman on fire and watched her burn to death, this year? Is that not a mini-9/11 of an American citizen? How can these terrorist acts continue? How did we get here? How much worse can it become?

Well, what about that illegal Afghanistan refugee, with a wife and three children, living in Bellingham, Washington—and he drives 3,000 miles to Washington DC to shoot two National Guard troops, killing one, and the other hanging on for dear life?

Yet, Biden allowed tens of thousands of unvetted Third World Muslims who come from the single most violent and insane religion on the planet—into America. Their prime directive is to conquer America and turn it into an Islamic state. Once they succeed, and they have SUCCEEDED in every Western Country in Europe—we're facing one hell of a loss of our cohesive culture. Once we lose our ethos, our language, our freedom of choice and free speech—we're all heading into a hellhole of religious violence and chaos—that's how Muslims operate.

How many more sleeper cell terrorist cities do we see besides NYC, Dearborn, Michigan, and Los Angeles?

Governor Tim Walz, (D-MN), faces fraud, lying and coverups of $200,000,000.00 in EBT card ripoff of our taxes by Somalian immigrants. He also hid $9 million in Medicaid fraud by the same Somalian immigrants. After 20 years in our country, 90 percent of them have made welfare a lifestyle on our tax dollars. Yet, Minnesota's own governor suppressed the whistleblowers as to the fraud. And, worse, Somalian Ilhan Omar, (D-MN), defrauded her immigration standing by marrying her brother to get him into America. Also, she went from penniless to a $30 million bank account. You can't make this stuff up!

With the Communist-Marxist Muslim New York City Mayor-elect Mamdani, you can expect more fraud, more Muslim power, and more Islamic dominance in America's largest city.

What about MS-13's drug distribution terror network that has killed over 300,000 American kids in the past four years? And, thousands before that! That's internal terrorism to the max!

How about the 400,000 illegal alien mothers of anchor babies who defraud our hospitals, our schools and lunch programs at billions of dollars, annually? They add another 400,000 anchor babies annually because Congress won't outlaw birthright citizenship. It illustrates that our Congress is as "corrupt" or just plain "stupid" as the illegal alien pregnant mothers.

What about the $100 billion in cash-transfers of our money sent off to other countries, annually? That's a form of financial terrorism. Talk about the consequences to all Americans—we're $38 trillion in national debt. How will we ever recover from THAT kind of terrorism?

How about the cultural terrorism now that we have honor killings and female genital mutilation into unknown numbers? Cutting out the genitalia of a young nine-year-old girl is barbaric terrorism that few address. It's assault and battery on a child, yet you won't see any Muslim being prosecuted in Dearborn, Michigan. Or, anywhere else for that matter!

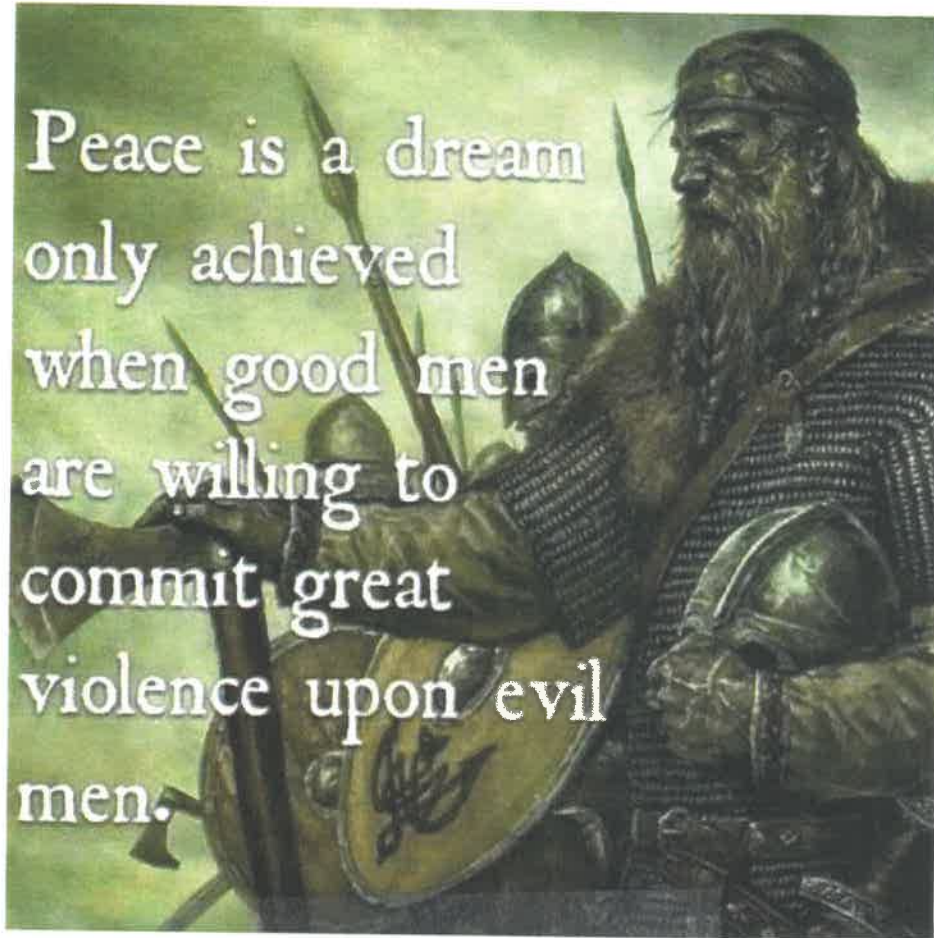

Finally, when Joe Biden's handlers allowed 15 to 20 million illegal aliens into our country, you better believe we face terrorist Islamic sleeper cells plotting to blow up our electrical grids, or poisoning our water supplies, or staging mass killings of some kind to disrupt our society.

Again, this quote says it all, "Islam isn't in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Quran should be the highest authority in America along with Sharia Law, and Islam the only religion on Earth." Ahmad Omar, Director of C.A.I.R.

Both the Muslim Brotherhood and C.A.I.R. should be declared internal terror groups and deported out of America, or locked up. Sharia Law should be legally banned out of America.

Again, if we continue with the 1965 Immigration Reform Act, and we don't rescind it, we're in for one nasty, rude awakening that has already engulfed Europe. At some point, we won't be able to stop it.

At some point, as we import all these Third World people, we too, will become a Third World country. It's as certain as the coming of the dawn.

Donald Jeffries, Somalians, IQ, and the Fraud of Diversity

Donald Jeffries

It's not our strength

Recently, our invaluable Somalian immigrants have been in the news. For whatever reason, an inordinate number of Somalians migrated to, or perhaps more accurately were placed in Minnesota. Africa is pretty hot. And yet they were attracted to, or steered to, a state with one of the coldest climates in the country.

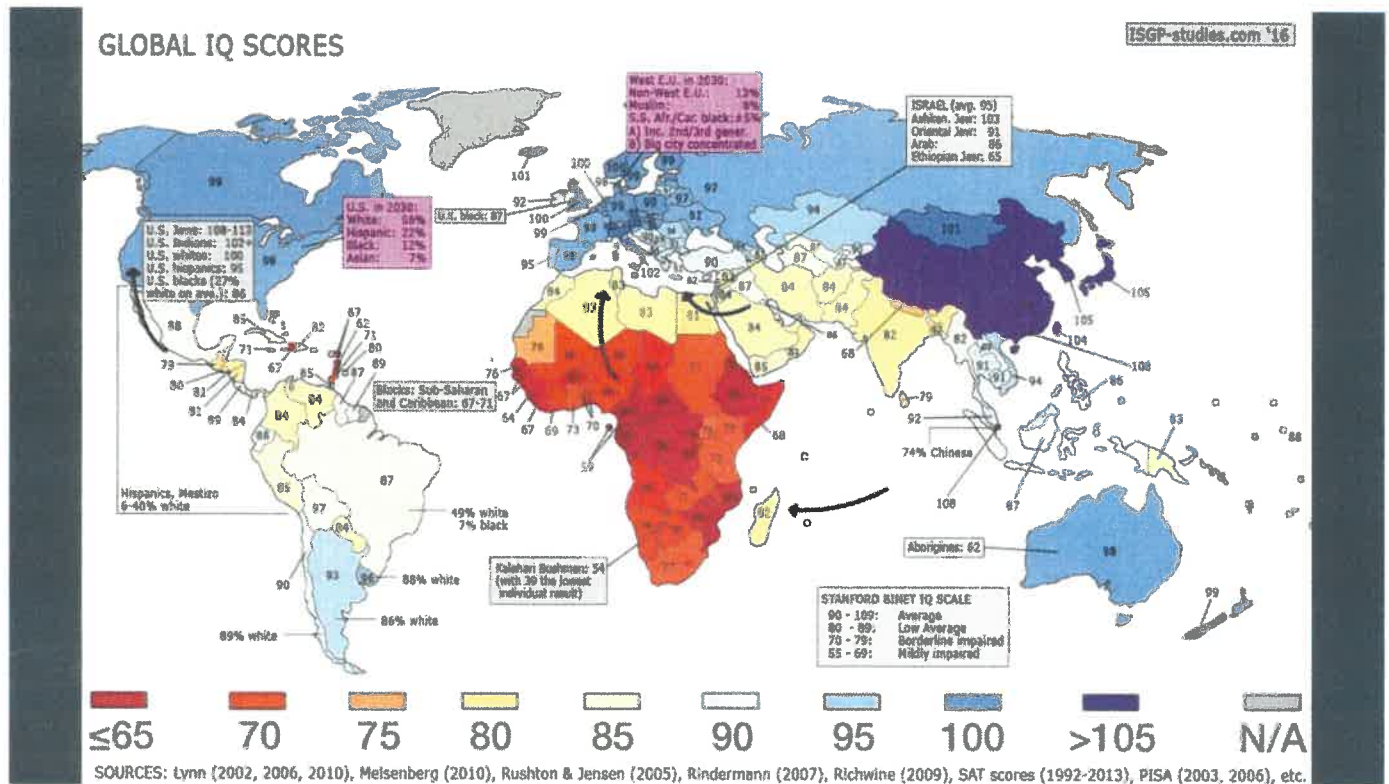

A young YouTuber named Nick Shirley visited several alleged day care centers in Minnesota, all of them run by Somalians. If it seems odd to you that Somalians have somehow cornered the market on day care in Minnesota, you might be a "racist." Shirley found no children in any of the day care centers, and was in fact denied admission to them. He also attempted to enroll his imaginary son, but again those running what appears to be a shell game had no interest. Now, we are told that our vaunted FBI has been targeting a slew of Somalian ventures for fraudulent activities, including autism, housing, and disability services. FBI director Kash Patel assured the public that he was on it. His unintentionally hilarious, wide eyed stare is his bond. We got this! Shirley has been attacked in the predictable fashion, by "journalists" who instinctively defend official corruption and genuflect towards the authorities who engage in it. It's a state controlled press thing, you wouldn't understand.

Nick Shirley is only 23 years old, and his sudden prominence invites comparisons to both Nick Fuentes and Charlie Kirk. He has amassed over a million followers on YouTube, and his video on fraud in Minnesota day care centers garnered an incredible 116 million views on X. Now, that's viral. So, of course, I'm suspicious of him. I know how hard it is to increase your subscriber and follower numbers, without a powerful backer or financial shenanigans. But fraud is fraud. Somalians, Eskimos, or rednecks- it's criminal to funnel millions of taxpayer dollars into businesses that don't really exist. That should be the argument, not whether Shirley is a legitimate journalist. No one who works for any television network is a legitimate journalist. "Tim Walz and the fraudsters aren't escaping this one," Shirley tweeted on X. Well, the question is: who is going to hold them accountable? "Tampon" Tim Walz? Kash Patel?

Walz, known for once having horse semen pumped from his stomach, assured the public that he has been investigating the fraud. He's got this ! And, of course, he called Shirley a "White Supremacist." I mean, how else could he defend this kind of corruption? Somalian immigrants aren't White. Thus, they cannot possibly engage in fraud. They cannot possibly be guilty of corruption. They are hard working, upstanding people who are constantly being exploited by the Whites all around them. If you doubt that, watch any product that has come from Hollywood over the past sixty years. Whites are corrupt. Especially "White Supremacists." Shirley claims to have uncovered $110 million in fraud in one day. Minnesota Republican leader Tom Emmer lashed out at Walz, declaring, "4 million dollars of hard-earned tax dollars going to an education center that can't even spell learning correctly. Care to explain this one, Tim Walz?" What? Somalians can't spell the world "learning?"

Okay, here's the indelicate part. It's doubtful that many Somalians are good spellers. This is because, according to the available statistics, the average IQ in Somalia is 68. "Right-wing extremists" note that Somalia is one of the most dangerous and violent countries in the world. So how could our leaders not do all they could to import them here? Every study has shown that the average Black IQ score in the U.S. is 15-18 points lower than the average White score, but 68? Due to political pressure, the IQ threshold for mental retardation was dramatically lowered in 1973, from 85 to 70. So until 1973, someone with an IQ of 68 would have been considered to have a severe mental incapacity. Yes, I am aware that IQ scores don't mean everything. Look at your average Ivy League graduate, whose high IQ doesn't prevent him/her/they/them from swallowing the most absurd propaganda ever concocted. But IQ does equate with a general level of efficiency, an ability to perform tasks independently.

What exactly could society expect someone with an IQ of 68 to do in the workforce? Beyond mundane physical labor? Well, I suppose not run a fake daycare center, or some other shell company. But would you want one as a surgeon or an airplane pilot? DEI insanity pushes for just that. IQ scores are "racist," so they are ignored. Tim Walz and other deluded leftists would rather innocent people die than be "racist." Former Fox News contributor Dennis Michael Lynch tweeted out that "If tens of thousands of Somalians are not deported back to their third-world country, and if government officials like Tim Walz and other people in Minnesota are not sent to jail — or at least indicted — let me just say this: this administration, the concept of 'Make America Great Again,' and, for that matter, the rule of law are all completely full of BS. Nothing say. Full stop. Case closed." Lynch is absolutely right, but it is hard to believe that the cucked Trump administration will do something. Except maybe bomb Venezuela.

In 2017, a Somali immigrant turned Minneapolis police officer shot and killed a woman who had simply called 9/11 for help. The incident caused such an uproar that the cop was sentenced to 12 and a half years in prison. The victim, Justine Damond, was from Australia, where the average IQ is much higher than 68. An outraged group called Identity Europa, which promotes "European identity," erected a memorial to Damond, which the police angrily took down, since the group had been identified as "White supremacist" by the Anti-Defamation League, an unregistered foreign agent for Israel. JFK and RFK were in the process of forcing groups like the ADL to register as foreign agents until they were rudely interrupted on November 22, 1963. The Minneapolis mayor called the memorial "cowardly and disgusting." He also reminded the formerly very White community that "hate has no place here." If calling attention to murder is "hate," then how would this public official define murder itself?

You may recall that Melissa Hortman was the speaker of the Minnesota House of Representatives, before she and her husband were murdered in their home on June 14, 2025. Just before her death, she was the only Democrat to vote with the Republicans, on a measure to stop extending free healthcare to undocumented immigrants. Who can forget the even more preposterous official story than usual here? We were told that the Hortmans were shot by 3-namer Vance Luther Boelter, a former 7-11 manager and mortuary worker who was impersonating a police officer. Although he was depicted as a far-right "wacko," the alleged assassin had been appointed to the Governor's Workforce Development Board. By Tim Walz. Who called the shootings "politically motivated." So a Democrat that voted with the Republicans was shot by a Walz appointee, who is still somehow a MAGA extremist? How do you get a cool appointment like that, by the way, with a background in funeral homes and 7-11s?

Now, some of those that Hortman voted to deny free government healthcare to would have been those humble and lovable Somali migrants. The ones with an average IQ of 68. The ones who have now been connected to massive daycare center fraud. No wonder Tim Walz was upset. One struggles to understand why people with such mental limitations are desirable to American officials. But then again, these are the same beloved officials who filled up Springfield, Ohio with Haitian immigrants that were accused of murdering and eating dogs and cats. That was a big story for a moment in September, 2024. As usual, the story was quickly forgotten. And now, all mainstream sources in our "free press" refer to this as the "Springfield pet-eating hoax." Normally, they recoil at the word "hoax." Consider that some 20,000 Haitians were placed into a city of 60,000. For what possible reason? To be falsely accused of eating pets? Shockingly, Haiti's average IQ is even lower than Somalia's, at 67.

It's one thing to hold some idealistic notion about "diversity." To picture all the pretty colors producing a rainbow that would make the LBGTQ+ crowd envious. But what are we doing here? Aren't American citizens unintelligent enough? I mean, they've been dumbed down so effectively that our average IQ has been plummeting. Alex Jones claims it's been falling a few points for each of the past several generations. The mainstream just acknowledges that it is falling now. So thank a purple haired teacher for that, I guess. Looking at the average IQs by country, we find China at the top, with 107, followed by South Korea and Japan. Somehow, those IQ tests aren't "biased" against Asians. The much maligned Iran is at number four, at 106.3. Almost forty points higher than Haiti and Somalia. Such crafty "state sponsors." The U.S. is ranked 30th, at 99.74. This would undoubtedly be higher if not for the average IQ of 85 posted by African Americans. Which was considered mentally retarded until 1973.

The movie Idiocracy focused almost exclusively on dumb White 'Murricans. There are plenty of those, but how dumb were African Americans 500 years into the future? A Black man was fittingly pictured as president of this Idiocracy. Our largest minority, Hispanics, which by the time the film takes place should have been a clear majority of America, also weren't shown. Hispanics generally average about 12 IQ points lower than Whites. I don't want to flirt with eugenicist philosophy here. There are different types of intelligence. For example, I was tested at a 135 IQ. Borderline genius, they told me. But if you were stranded on a desert island with me, I wouldn't be capable of building much of a shelter, foraging for food, etc. I'd analyze the situation perfectly, and complain a lot. I'm very adept at complaining. You'd be better off with a Haitian handyman whose IQ was half as high as mine. But the point is we don't need even high IQ immigrants to "give the joint atmosphere," to quote from It's a Wonderful Life.

Italian immigrants immeasurably improved the cuisine here. For that reason alone, they should be lauded. The Irish brought a rebellious spirit. Countless Americans like me are descendants of Irish immigrants. My heart will always be with them. But the newer immigrants, those who came in the wake of the disastrous 1965 Immigration "Reform" Act, have not improved our civilization. Hispanics have brought cheaper labor, and while they have been exploited themselves, their presence has been a primary reason that blue collar wages have fallen in real terms, and benefits have been slashed, over the past fifty years. Haitians, even if they aren't really murdering and eating family pets, have brought nothing positive. Neither have Somalians, even if they aren't involved in widespread business fraud. We don't need them, any more than England or France need the Muslim hordes, even if the rape gangs are fictitious. Why did the Brits allow a Londonistan to be constructed? Why is there no Pekingistan?

Don't get me wrong. If these IQ test results reflect reality, then the White subservience all over the world is even more inexcusable. Why would Whites let nonwhites who are quantitatively less intelligent dominate them? Why would they favor them over other Whites? At some point, you'd think that our higher average IQs would cause the vast majority of Whites to recognize what is going on. I mean, who's really smarter here; the Ebonics-speaking rapper with his pants falling off, or the White engineer who mimics his ridiculous fashions and pays to listen to his gibberish? Why does a society run largely by Whites (insert non-Irish reference here), value the contributions of tall men who can play with balls more than the labor of men and women with IQs 15 points higher? Whites have permitted the desecration of their culture, and the rewriting of their history.

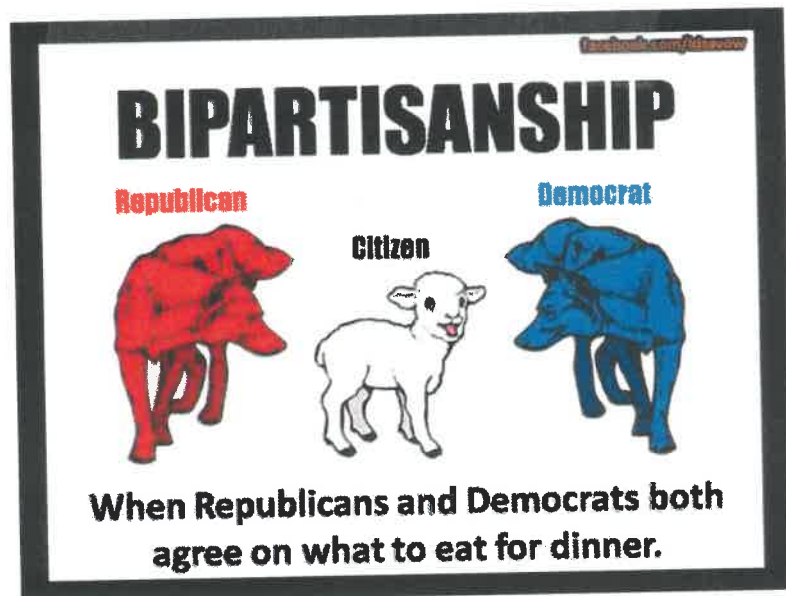

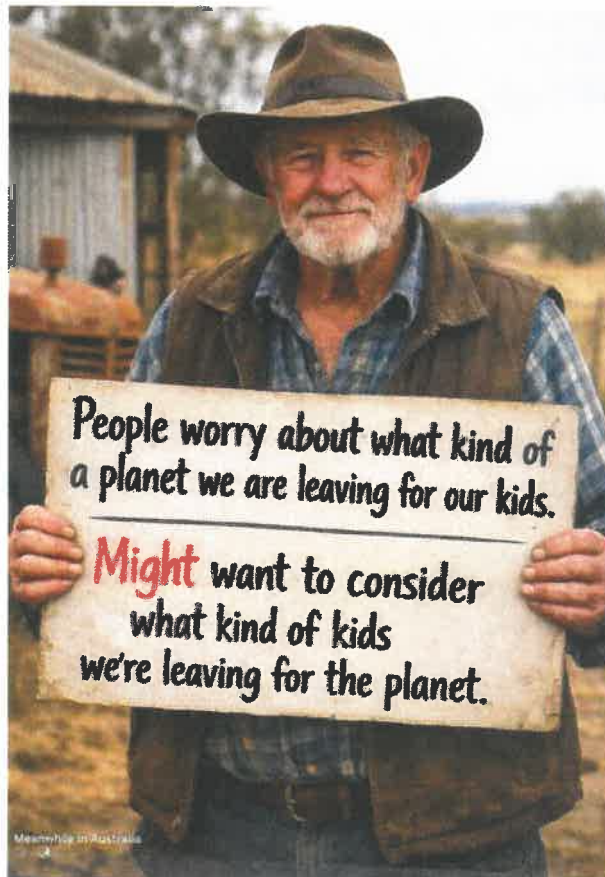

White-run colleges sanctioned Black Studies courses. Whites in power are responsible for all anti-White discrimination.

The scene depicted above was shockingly common during the summer of 2020. The George Floyd summer. White police officers, religious leaders, and mere peasants knelt and kissed Black feet. Is there any doubt that many White Minnesotans today would kneel and kiss the feet of Somalians accused of daycare center fraud? We, and I'm not afraid to say I mean average White people, have lost this country. Not a superior position in this country, but any position at all. We exist as a prop for multiculturalism. For "people of color" to mock and attribute "privilege" to. As Dennis Michael Lynch said, if we can't hold people-both nonwhite offenders and White enablers and string pullers-accountable for something like this, then not only MAGA is gone. Our desire to vote should already be gone. Marjorie Taylor Greene is calling for a national refusal to pay taxes. I love that idea. Why should any White citizen pay for a diabolical plan to literally exterminate him from the world?

Anyone with an average White IQ should be able to see this for what it is. The Great Replacement is all too real. Haitians have no more logical reason to flock to Springfield, Ohio, than Somalians do to Minnesota. Someone is arranging this. Haiti and Somalia are Fourth World countries. These aren't wealthy migrants seeking a better life here. They are clearly poor, seemingly without the financial means to travel here. And yet they do. It's almost as if someone, who has a twisted vested interest in their being here, is footing the cost. For all we know, U.S. taxpayers are. There could be a migrant transportation fund stuck in there, in some agency that will never be audited by the late, lamented DOGE. We know that no Somalis will be deported over the daycare scandal.

Tim Walz will stay entrenched in power. We don't need "skilled" migrants, so we certainly don't need desperately poor ones who are corrupt. What we do need is real opportunities for those who are here legally. And that includes Whites.

The Stealing of America: You're Not a Citizen— You're a Revenue Stream for the Power Elite

By John & Nisha Whitehead

March 24, 2026

“There is no art which one government sooner learns of another than that of draining money from the pockets of the people.”—Adam Smith, Wealth of Nations

You're not imagining it.

Everything costs more. Everything is monitored.

Everything feels like it's designed to take—from your wallet, your time, your freedom.

That's because it is.

The government has turned everyday life into a revenue stream—funding endless wars, bloated agencies, surveillance systems, and profit-driven policing... all on your dime.

You're not just paying taxes. You're paying to be watched. Paying to be policed. Paying to be controlled.

This isn't government. It's a business model.

By now, it has become painfully clear that the only economic plan being advanced by the Trump administration is the kind that enriches the oligarchy at the expense of everyone else.

If the government's newly dubbed “war on waste,” headed by Vice President J.D. Vance, is anything like its deceptively futile past efforts to drain the swamp and use DOGE to cut spending that is inefficient, we should expect to see corruption, graft and waste rise while vital programs that benefit the taxpayer get slashed.

The level of self-serving corruption, indulgence and excess by the elite ruling class while Americans struggle to make ends meet is off the charts.

Under President Trump, his gilding of the White House has coincided with the dawn of a new self-serving age of indulgence for the American oligarchy. As Debbie Millman writes for the New York Times: “Trump is showing the world that his presidency is a royal court where a select few are invited to pledge their allegiance... Trump is refashioning the presidential residence into a palace; our democracy is now a members-only club.”

This is Donald Trump’s “let them eat cake” moment.

Tens of millions in one year alone for the president’s weekend golf trips while government agencies are dismantled and tens of thousands of federal workers have their jobs slashed. According to the web tracker “Did Trump Golf Today?” Trump has spent 23.5% of his presidency golfing at an estimated cost of $141 million to the taxpayer.

An extra \$200 billion in additional defense funding so Pete Hegseth can make a game out of war with Iran. More than $16 billion was spent in the first 12 days of Trump’s war on Iran. lawsuit and settlement that follows.

In the eyes of Trump and his cohorts, you are not a citizen—you are a revenue stream, and the government is cashing in.

Call it what you will—taxes, penalties, fees, fines, regulations, tariffs, tickets, permits, surcharges, tolls, asset forfeitures—but the only word that truly describes the constant bilking of the American taxpayer by the government and its corporate partners is this: theft.

We're living in a topsy-turvy Sherwood Forest where the government and its corporate allies aren't stealing from the rich to feed the poor—they're stealing from the poor, the middle class, and anyone not politically connected to further enrich the powerful.

The result is as predictable as it is devastating: the poor get poorer, the rich get richer, and the American Dream has been replaced by a surveillance state propped up by endless war, crippling debt, and legalized plunder.

What Americans still fail to grasp is this: if the government can take your property, your income, your privacy, and your freedom at will, you don't have rights—you have privileges.

And privileges can be revoked.

The American police state, with its surveillance cameras, militarized police, SWAT raids, fusion centers, drones, AI tracking systems, predictive policing algorithms, asset forfeiture schemes, and privatized prisons, is not about keeping you safe.

It is about profit.

It is a sprawling, multi-trillion-dollar ecosystem designed to move money from taxpayers through government agencies and into corporate hands, all under the ever-shifting justifications of "security," "law and order," and "national emergency."

The rationalizations never change.

We are told it is about terrorism, drugs, immigration, public safety, or civil unrest. Today, those justifications have simply been expanded to include artificial intelligence, foreign adversaries, domestic extremism, and a permanent state of war abroad.

But these are pretexts.

The real motive has remained the same for decades: control the population, monetize the system, and keep the money flowing upward.

Follow the money and the truth becomes impossible to ignore: The government isn't serving you. It's billing you.

The federal government is now barreling toward \$1.5 trillion in annual military spending, a staggering escalation that will add trillions more to the national debt in the coming decade. At the same time, the Trump administration is pouring hundreds of billions more into a widening conflict with Iran, where the cost of war is measured not only in lives lost but in taxpayer dollars funneled directly into the coffers of defense contractors.

At home, policing has become a billion-dollar industry unto itself. Federal, state and local governments spend more than $80 billion a year on policing, much of it used to transform civilian police forces into paramilitary units equipped with battlefield weapons and surveillance technology.

The prison system continues to operate as a profit engine, costing more than $100 billion annually while warehousing nearly 2 million people and placing millions more under government supervision. It costs taxpayers tens of thousands of dollars each year to incarcerate a single individual, many of them nonviolent offenders, while private prison corporations reap the financial rewards of a system designed to keep cells full.

Through civil asset forfeiture, law enforcement agencies seize billions of dollars in cash, cars and property, often without ever charging the owner with a crime, creating a perverse incentive to police for profit rather than justice.

The Department of Homeland Security, once sold to the public as a temporary safeguard, has become a permanent fixture of the American landscape, consuming more than $100 billion annually while expanding its reach into every corner of domestic life.

Immigration enforcement has evolved into a sprawling detention and deportation machine fueled by tens of billions in taxpayer funding, increasingly targeting not only undocumented immigrants but also legal residents and individuals whose only offense is dissent.

Layered on top of all of this is a rapidly expanding digital dragnet in which government agencies partner with private tech companies to deploy artificial intelligence systems capable of tracking, predicting and cataloging human behavior, turning everyday life into a series of data points to be monitored, analyzed and controlled.

Even local governments have been drawn into the scheme, generating billions through fines, fees, traffic cameras and automated enforcement systems that disproportionately target those least able to pay, turning ordinary citizens into revenue streams.

This is not accidental. It is a business model.

The same government that claims it cannot afford healthcare, education or housing somehow always finds unlimited funds for war. As President Eisenhower warned, the military-industrial complex feeds on conflict, and today that machine has become both global and permanent.

The wars do not end.

The spending does not stop.

And the bill always comes due to the American taxpayer.

Every bomb that falls, every missile launched, every drone strike carried out carries a price tag, and that price tag has your name on it.

At home, the logic is no different.

Policing has shifted away from protecting communities and toward managing populations, particularly those deemed inconvenient, undesirable or expendable. SWAT raids are deployed for minor offenses, predictive policing programs target individuals before any crime has been committed, and surveillance technologies are used to monitor activists, journalists and political dissenters.

Poverty itself has been criminalized, with people fined, ticketed and jailed for low-level infractions, while homelessness is treated not as a social failure but as a law enforcement opportunity.

Even the nation's schools have been folded into this pipeline, where zero-tolerance policies and truancy enforcement funnel children into the criminal justice system at an early age.

What passes for law enforcement today is increasingly indistinguishable from revenue enforcement.

None of this happens in isolation.

Corporate America is deeply embedded in every aspect of this system. Defense contractors profit from war. Technology companies profit from surveillance. Private prison corporations profit from incarceration. Data brokers profit from harvesting and selling your personal information. Financial institutions profit from the ever-expanding national debt.

Even prison labor, paid pennies on the dollar, feeds directly into corporate supply chains, creating yet another incentive to keep the system running at full capacity.

When government power and corporate profit become intertwined in this way, the Constitution becomes optional and profit becomes policy.

In this new economy, you are no longer just a citizen.

You are a revenue stream, a data point, a potential suspect, and a body to be managed.

Whether through taxes, fines, surveillance or forced labor, the system is designed to extract value from you at every stage of your life.

And when you add it all up, the cost is not merely financial—it is constitutional.

Every dollar poured into this machinery comes at the expense of your privacy, your property, your due process rights, your freedom of movement, and your freedom of speech.

As I make clear in Battlefield America: The War on the American People and in its fictional counterpart The Erik Blair Diaries, this is the real bottom line: you are paying for the erosion of your own freedoms.

If this system continues unchecked, the future is already taking shape—a nation in which everything is monitored, everything is monetized, and nothing is truly free.

The solution is not more funding, more surveillance or more enforcement.

It is the opposite.

It is time to defund the police state, dismantle the profit incentives, restore constitutional limits, and return power—and resources—to the people.

Because until that happens, the theft will continue.

And the only question left will be how much is left to steal.

40 Outrageous Facts Most People Don't Know

By Editor on July 5, 2015

Once you go down the rabbit hole, you will discover things that most people don't know. Here are 40 outrageous facts that most people are clueless about.

1. The IRS is not a U.S. Government Agency. It is an Agency of the IMF. (Diversified Metal Products v. IRS et al. CV-93-405E-EJE U.S.D.C.D.I., Public Law 94-564, Senate Report 94-1148 pg. 5967, Reorganization Plan No. 26, Public Law 102-391.)
2. The IMF is an Agency of the UN. (Black's Law Dictionary 6th Ed. Pg. 816)
3. The U.S. Has not had a Treasury since 1921. (41 Stat. Ch.214 pg. 654)
4. The U.S. Treasury is now the IMF. (Presidential Documents Volume 29-No.4 pg. 113, 22 U.S.C. 285-288)
5. The United States does not have any employees because there is no longer a United States. No more reorganizations. After over 200 years of operating under bankruptcy its finally over. (Executive Order 12803) Do not personate one of the creditors or share holders or you will go to Prison.18 U.S.C. 914
6. The FCC, CIA, FBI, NASA and all of the other alphabet gangs were never part of the United States government. Even though the "US Government" held shares of stock in the various Agencies. (U.S. V. Strang , 254 US 491, Lewis v. US, 680 F.2d, 1239)
7. Social Security Numbers are issued by the UN through the IMF. The Application for a Social Security Number is the SS5 form. The Department of the Treasury (IMF) issues the SS5 not the Social Security Administration. The new SS5 forms do not state who or what publishes them, the earlier SS5 forms state that they are Department of the Treasury forms. You can get a copy of the SS5 you filled out by sending form SSA-L996 to the SS Administration. (20 CFR chapter 111, subpart B 42 2.103 (b) (2) (2) Read the cites above)
8. There are no Judicial courts in America and there has not been since 1789. Judges do not enforce Statutes and Codes. Executive Administrators enforce Statutes and Codes. (FRC v. GE 281 US 464, Keller v. PE 261 US 428, 1 Stat. 138-178)
9. There have not been any Judges in America since 1789. There have just been Administrators. (FRC v. GE 281 US 464, Keller v. PE 261 US 428 1Stat. 138-178)
10. According to the GATT you must have a Social Security number. House Report (103-826)
11. We have One World Government, One World Law and a One World Monetary System.
12. The UN is a One World Super Government.

13. No one on this planet has ever been free. This planet is a Slave Colony. There has always been a One World Government. It is just that now it is much better organized and has changed its name as of 1945 to the United Nations.

14. New York City is defined in the Federal Regulations as the United Nations. Rudolph Gulliani stated on C-Span that "New York City was the capital of the World" and he was correct. (20 CFR chapter 111, subpart B 422.103 (b) (2) (2))

15. Social Security is not insurance or a contract, nor is there a Trust Fund. (Hilvering v. Davis 301 US 619, Steward Co. V. Davis 301 US 548.)

16. Your Social Security check comes directly from the IMF which is an Agency of the UN. (Look at it if you receive one. It should have written on the top left United States Treasury.)

17. You own no property, slaves can't own property. Read the Deed to the property that you think is yours. You are listed as a Tenant. (Senate Document 43, 73rd Congress 1st Session)

18. The most powerful court in America is not the United States Supreme Court but, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. (42 Pa.C.S.A. 502)

19. The Revolutionary War was a fraud. See (22, 23 and 24)

20. The King of England financially backed both sides of the Revolutionary war. (Treaty at Versailles July 16, 1782, Treaty of Peace 8 Stat 80)

...and as history repeats itself, Prescott Bush, father of George HW Bush and grandfather of George W. Bush, funded both sides of World War II. The Bush family have been traitors to the American citizens for decades.

"Sarah, if the American people had ever known the truth about what we Bushes have done to this nation, we would be chased down in the streets and lynched."

George Bush Senior speaking in an interview with Sarah McClendon in December 1992

21. You cannot use the Constitution to defend yourself because you are not a party to it. (Padelford Fay & Co. v. The Mayor and Alderman of The City of Savannah 14 Georgia 438, 520)

22. America is a British Colony. (THE UNITED STATES IS A CORPORATION, NOT A LAND MASS AND IT EXISTED BEFORE THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR AND THE BRITISH TROOPS DID NOT LEAVE UNTIL 1796.) Respublica v. Sweers 1 Dallas 43, Treaty of Commerce 8 Stat 116, The Society for Propagating the Gospel, &c. V. New Haven 8 Wheat 464, Treaty of Peace 8 Stat 80, IRS Publication 6209, Articles of Association October 20, 1774.)

23. Britain is owned by the Vatican. (Treaty of 1213)

24. The Pope can abolish any law in the United States. (Elements of Ecclesiastical Law Vol.1 53-54)

25. A 1040 form is for tribute paid to Britain. (IRS Publication 6209)

26. The Pope claims to own the entire planet through the laws of conquest and discovery. (Papal Bulls of 1455 and 1493)

27. The Pope has ordered the genocide and enslavement of millions of people.(Papal Bulls of 1455 and 1493)

28. The Pope's laws are obligatory on everyone. (Bened. XIV., De Syn. Dioec, lib, ix., c. vii., n. 4. Prati, 1844)(Syllabus, prop 28, 29, 44)

29. We are slaves and own absolutely nothing not even what we think are our children. (Tillman v. Roberts 108 So. 62, Van Koten v. Van Koten 154 N.E. 146, Senate Document 43 & 73rd Congress 1st Session, Wynehammer v. People 13 N.Y. REP 378, 481)

30. Military Dictator George Washington divided the States (Estates) into Districts. (Messages and papers of the Presidents Vo 1, pg 99. Webster's 1828 dictionary for definition of Estate.)

31. " The People" does not include you and me. (Barron v. Mayor & City Council of Baltimore. 32 U.S. 243)

32. The United States Government was not founded upon Christianity. (Treaty of Tripoli 8 Stat 154.)

33. It is not the duty of the police to protect you. Their job is to protect the Corporation and arrest code breakers. Sapp v. Tallahassee, 348 So. 2nd. 363, Reiff v. City of Philadelphia, 477 F.Supp. 1262, Lynch v. N.C. Dept of Justice 376 S.E. 2nd. 247.

34. Everything in the "United States" is For Sale: roads, bridges, schools, hospitals, water, prisons airports etc. I wonder who bought Klamath lake. Did anyone take the time to check? (Executive Order 12803)

35. We are Human capital. (Executive Order 13037)

36. The UN has financed the operations of the United States government for over 50 years and now owns every man, women and child in America. The UN also holds all of the Land in America in Fee Simple.

37. The good news is we don't have to fulfill "our" fictitious obligations. You can discharge a fictitious obligation with another's fictitious obligation.

38. The depression and World War II were a total farce. The United States and various other companies were making loans to others all over the World during the Depression. The building of Germanys infrastructure in the 1930's including the Railroads was financed by the United States. That way those who call themselves "Kings," "Prime Ministers," and "Furor."etc could sit back and play a game of chess using real people. Think of all of the Americans, Germans etc. who gave their lives thinking they were defending their Countries which didn't even exist. The millions of innocent people who died for nothing. Isn't it obvious why Switzerland is never involved in these fiascoes? That is where the "Bank of International Settlements" is located.

Wars are manufactured to keep your eye off the ball. You have to have an enemy to keep the illusion of "Government" in place.

39. The "United States" did not declare Independence from Great Britain or King George.

40. The etymology of government means to control the mind. From Latinised Greek gubernatio "management, government", from Ancient Greek κυβερνισμός, κυβέρνησις (kybernismos, kybernesis) "steering, pilotage, guiding", from κυβερνάω (kybernao) "to steer, to drive, to guide, to act as a pilot" plus Latin mente "mind".

Declassified CIA files reveal chilling blueprint to manipulate Americans' minds through covert drugging with vaccines

By STACY LIBERATORE, US SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY EDITOR

A newly released CIA document reveals a chilling blueprint to manipulate minds through covert drugging experiments.

The report, added to the CIA's reading room in 2025, details the government's once top-secret Project Artichoke that ran from 1951 to 1956, focusing on behavior control, interrogation techniques and psychological manipulation.

The seven-page document, titled 'Special Research for Artichoke,' with an attachment labeled 'Suggested Fields for Special Research Relative Artichoke,' outlines proposals to develop chemicals capable of altering human behavior.

It discusses drugs designed for both immediate effects, like truth serums and long-term influence, potentially administered through food, water, alcohol or cigarettes.

Researchers also suggested that such substances could be disguised in medical treatments such as vaccinations or injections.

The CIA was also looking into methods beyond chemicals, listing hypnosis, sensory deprivation, gases and other psychological methods for interrogation and behavioral control.

Artichoke served as a precursor to the CIA's MKUltra program, which later broadened mind-altering experiments on a larger scale.

Many files were destroyed in the 1970s, leaving the full extent of the research and how far it progressed unknown.

I. CHEMICALS (Including Drugs)

It is believed that specific research should be undertaken to develop new chemicals or drugs or to improve known elements for use in the Artichoke work. A study should be made to determine what drugs are best suited for direct use on subjects along the lines of amytal and pentothal and which drugs are best for indirect or long-range approach to subjects. This second type of drug should be one that could be administered over a considerable period of time, possibly being placed in food or water and would either have an agitating effect (producing anxiety, nervousness, tension, etc.) or a depressing effect (creating a feeling of despondency, hopelessness, lethargy, etc.). This study should include chemicals or drugs that can effectively be concealed in common items such as food, water, coca cola, beer, liquor, cigarettes, etc. This type of drug should also be capable of use in standard medical treatments such as vaccinations, shots, etc.

While there are literally hundreds of chemicals or drugs that effect the mental processes of an individual, many of these chemicals or drugs could be eliminated by individuals having special knowledge in the chemical/drug field. It is known that the Army Chemical Warfare Service has made exhaustive studies along these lines and perhaps they could furnish us with many specific answers. Man like [redacted] could, undoubtedly, give pertinent information if they could be properly approached.

The document was declassified in 1983, but has resurfaced on social media, where users are shocked to see the CIA discussing methods for 'drugging entire populations.' Project Artichoke emerged during the early Cold War, a period marked by intense anxiety over communist powers and reports of brainwashing techniques used on American prisoners of war in Korea.

Internal CIA memos suggested that US intelligence feared enemy nations had developed ways to control human thought and behavior, prompting the agency to explore its own capabilities.

The declassified document reveals the depth of this research, noting the need for a study 'to determine what drugs are best suited for direct use on subjects along the lines of amytal and pentothal and which drugs are best for an indirect or long-range approach to subjects.'

The researchers involved in the secret program emphasized that long-term compounds should be capable of producing 'an agitating effect (producing anxiety, nervousness, tension, etc.) or a depressing effect (creating a feeling of despondency, hopelessness, lethargy, etc.).'

They also outlined practical considerations for concealment, such as substances that could be introduced surreptitiously in 'food, water, Coca-Cola, beer, liquor, cigarettes, etc.', highlighting the CIA's focus on undetectable methods of influence.

Moreover, the report recommended consulting with the Army Chemical Warfare Service, noting they have conducted 'exhaustive studies along these lines' that could provide specific guidance for the program.

Beyond drugs, Artichoke explored a wide range of psychological tools.

The CIA files discuss drugs designed for both immediate effects, like truth serums and long-term influence, potentially administered through food, water, alcohol or cigarettes (STOCK)

Sections of the document discussed 'hypnosis,' 'psychological techniques' and 'gases, aerosols, and oxygen deficiencies,' demonstrating that the CIA sought to combine chemical, environmental and mental approaches.

Researchers questioned whether such methods could compel individuals to perform actions against their own will, including potentially criminal acts, without leaving conscious awareness of their behavior.

Human experimentation under Artichoke often involved vulnerable subjects, including prisoners, military personnel and psychiatric patients, typically without informed consent.

While much of the documentation was destroyed in 1973, remaining files suggested that the CIA and its collaborators systematically explored the limits of psychological manipulation, with ethical considerations frequently subordinated to perceived national security needs.

Artichoke evolved into the more expansive MKUltra program in 1953, which pushed experimentation further, particularly with hallucinogens like LSD.

MKUltra involved hundreds of subprojects at universities, hospitals, and prisons, many of which used unwitting subjects, drawing outrage when the programs were exposed in the 1970s by congressional hearings, including the Church Committee.

Gangster James 'Whitey' Bulger, a former organized crime boss, was used as a test subject in 1957 while an inmate at the Atlanta penitentiary.

He explained he was one of eight convicts in a panic and paranoid state while in MKUltra.

'Total loss of appetite. Hallucinating. The room would change shape. Hours of paranoia and feeling violent,' Bulger penned.

'We experienced horrible periods of living nightmares and even blood coming out of the walls. Guys are turning into skeletons in front of me. I saw a camera change into the head of a dog. I felt like I was going insane.'

Republicans Prefer War to the US Constitution and to Truth

By Paul Craig Roberts

The Republican-controlled House and Senate rejected a war powers vote that would have granted Congress the ability to decide whether Trump could continue serving Israel's conflict with Iran.

Apparently 77% of Republicans have fallen for the propaganda that Iran is a terrorist state developing nuclear weapons. The same Republicans fell for 9/11, Saddam Hussein's "weapons of mass destruction," Assad's "use chemical weapons," Russian invasion of Ukraine, the Gulf of Tonkin, the endless lies about Gaddafi. And now the Republicans are falling for Trump's unsupported claim that the "War is very complete, far ahead of schedule."

If the war is nearly over ahead of schedule, how come on March 8 the US State Department ordered non-emergency US government employees and family to leave Saudi Arabia due to safety risks? How is a war that has expanded to Saudi Arabia nearly over? This was an upgrade of the previous order. It seems that the State Department's concern about its personnel is inconsistent with Trump's optimism. Has Trump now joined the whore media lie machine? Is Trump creating a non-existent reality for his remaining supporters?

Democracy does not function when the only information citizens have comes from a lie machine that serves the official narrative of the day and from a president who confuses his hopes with reality.

Alexander Dugin, apparently Russia's smartest person, says it is not Iranian war capability that is collapsing, but American credibility. "The fact that Iran is not surrendering, not agreeing to a truce or a ceasefire, is already changing the balance of power."

It is worth listening to Dugin, because if he is correct, Trump has allowed Netanyahu to lead America into difficult times.

"Missile and drone strikes have been carried out against all U.S. bases surrounding Iran. According to neutral estimates, more than 1,000 American service members have been killed (Iran reports much higher numbers, while Trump speaks of only a handful, which seems laughable given the scale of the Iranian strikes).

"Iran has chosen a very effective tactic: striking not only military targets in Israel, which is gradually turning into something resembling Gaza, but above all the hubs and energy centers of the Arab Gulf states on which the global economy depends. Combined with the blocking of the Strait of Hormuz, this has already led to enormous losses for the global market. Moreover, the situation will worsen with each day of Iranian resistance.

“It is significant that the Gulf countries—whose plans to transform themselves into neutral and safe centers of the world economy have now come to an end—blame not so much Iran as Israel and the United States. They have always disliked Israel, but in their eyes Trump has become a direct traitor. If American military bases do not protect them but instead create danger, what are they needed for? Arab leaders ask this question quite logically.

“Meanwhile, the plankton of global capitalism and the armies of escort girls are hastily leaving Dubai. On the roof of an abandoned hotel, only the somewhat unhinged influencer Andrew Tate dances alone, stubbornly insisting that all of this is merely a computer simulation and that we are living in a matrix where new scenery has simply been loaded in.

“The next step will be the withdrawal of Arab bonds from the United States. Incidentally, BlackRock has halted the process of withdrawals from its funds, lowering the ceiling by more than half. It looks like the beginning of a collapse. Oil prices are soaring, and the indices are falling rapidly. It is entirely possible that the global economy may collapse altogether in the foreseeable future.”

If Dugin is right, at what level of intelligence does the US government operate when an expected 3-day war ends not in the expected victory but in economic and military catastrophe? Are not the American people somehow derelict in their responsibility to be informed and to do their duty to make certain that the US government actually serves Americans’ interest, not the interest of Israel? Is the conservative Republican chant: “you cannot be an American if you don’t love Israel” a method of creating blind American subservience to Israel’s agenda of Greater Israel regardless of the huge cost to Americans?

Obviously, the answer is yes.

To see and to understand how far off course America is in the ability of its population and elected representatives to preserve accountable government by protecting the separation of powers, reread the first sentence of this article.

Why did the elected US representatives in the House and Senate need a vote to determine whether Congress could vote on whether Trump could start and continue a war for Israel? The US Constitution, not Israel or Trump, is the governing power of the United States. The US Constitution makes no concessions to Israel or any other country to determine US policies. The US Constitution says that it is the power of Congress alone to take America to war. How long has it been since Congress exercised its Constitutional power? 1941. All wars costing American blood and money have been fought since by executive authority alone. On occasion the president obtains after the hostilities begin Congress’ “authorization.” But the authorization to continue a war already started is not the same as authorization to initiate a war. The war power of Congress delegated by the people has been for decades the prerogative of the Executive Branch, a power explicitly denied to the Executive Branch by the US Constitution. So for decades the so-called “American Democracy” is a country ruled not by the people and their elected representatives but by the executive branch. When it comes to war, the American executive branch is a dictatorship.

The destruction of the balance of powers and the Constitution's limits on the executive branch has been accepted by an insouciant population step by step. Today America no longer resembles the country created by the Founding Fathers. Indeed, I cannot recognize today the country I was born into in 1939.

My generation understood that freedom depended on truth, and that truth depended on the media and the universities. We knew that if people were inculcated with lies, the nation would be lost.

What has happened to America is that it is under attack by both of its political parties. The Republicans tell Americans about Israel's enemies. The Democrats tell Americans lies about Americans—that they are racists, homophobic, misogynist, anti-semitic. Trump tells us that we are good, but leads us to evil ends to serve Israel. The Democrats want to replace us with immigrant-invaders.

In the world in which we live powerful weapons exist, weapons that can destroy life on planet Earth. Russian hypersonic missiles cannot be intercepted. Their destructive payload is enormous and is delivered in multiple warheads. A year or so ago a Russian official said that only one Russian missile with its multiple warheads was sufficient to wipe Great Britain off of the face of the earth, Another official said it only takes three to do the same to the United States. The American missiles are less efficient but none the less dangerous if they get through.

Both Russia and the US have thousands of these missiles. How many would Russia have to launch before 3 got through?

Why is the world playing at war when Armageddon is hanging over our heads? Israel needs to immediately renounce its doctrine of Greater Israel and the United States needs to immediately renounce its doctrine of American Hegemony.

The idiots in charge of governments today are capable of destroying a planet. We must not believe one word of what they say.

The truth is not always easy to accept!

Record of Donald Trump's First Year in Office: Few Achievements, Much Division, Destruction and Aggression. "Donald Trump is Out of Control"

By Prof Rodrigue Tremblay

"It is important... that the habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those entrusted with its administration, to confine themselves their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding in the exercise of the of the powers of one department to encroach upon another. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism."

—George Washington (1732-1799), Founding Father and the first president of the United States, serving (1789-1797), (in 'President George Washington's Farewell Address', published on Sept. 19, 1796).

"[Jeffery Epstein] is a lot of fun to be with. It is even said that he likes beautiful women as much as I do, and many of them are on the younger side..."

—Donald Trump (1946-), in a phone interview, as reported in the article, "Jeffery Epstein: International Moneyman of Mystery", published by New York Magazine, Oct. 28, 2002.

"Power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely."

—John Dalberg-Acton (1834-1902), English historian and moralist,

(in a letter to an Anglican bishop, 1887).

*How can one evaluate the record of the Donald Trump administration 2.0 when, over the past year, the American president has violated many national and international laws and treaties, and rejected every precedent, every convention, every custom and has upended everything!

I. Since his inauguration on January 20, 2025, U.S. President Donald Trump (1946-) has displayed a predatory and unstable character and a questionable judgment

Donald Trump seems to lack the qualities that most people in a democracy value in a leader: competence, moderation, honesty, trust, judgment, compassion, humanism, empathy, responsibility, stability, and respect for human life and the rule of law.

Since Donald Trump does not seem to have any of those qualities, his violent predatory character, his excessive egocentrism, his lack of ethics or morality, his ignorance and his incompetence make him an extremely dangerous politician.

Over the years, he has gained a reputation among many psychiatrists and psychologists for being a narcissistic person, tyrannical and with an unstable personality—that is, someone who is self-centered and “who takes pleasure in exercising power or authority over people in an unfair or cruel way.”

What makes him a dangerous politician, as his chief of staff told Vanity Fair magazine, is that her boss has an “alcoholic’s personality”, that is, someone who is not fully aware of all the consequences of what he says or does. Mr. Trump also seems to be so insecure that he has developed a childish and constant hunger for praise. And he is continually congratulating himself and lying.

NEED TO KNOW

- President Donald Trump's chief of staff Susie Wiles told Vanity Fair that he has the personality of an alcoholic
- Wiles was referring to Trump's "big" personality and belief that he can do anything
- The president — whose older brother died after struggling for years with alcoholism — notably does not drink and never has

Trump's alleged involvement in Jeffery Epstein's international sex scandal involving minors

- Donald Trump has been accused of sexual depravity including accusations of rape.

He entertained a long-standing relationship with Jeffery Epstein, his friendly Floridian neighbor and a sexual criminal who was convicted in the case of a large scale international ring of sex-trafficking.

Once he became president, Mr. Trump was accused of a cover-up, because he refused to publish the Justice Department's millions of pages of the so-called Epstein Files, (despite having promised to do so during his last election campaign).

Such a release could shed light on his alleged role in Jeffery Epstein's international system of soliciting minors for prostitution.

The American people are therefore entitled to know all the truth about this important politico-moral scandal, and above all, what had been D. Trump's participation in such a perversion, which ruined the lives of some 1,200 American and European mainly teen-aged girls

A federal law, passed by Congress, called the 'Epstein Files Transparency Act', was adopted on November 18, 2025. It required that the Trump administration release the totality of the documents in the Epstein files one month later, but with little success.

Despite the law passed by Congress, there is a strong chance that Donald Trump's involvement in the scandal will never be formally known. The Trump Administration 2.0 could destroy the evidence or withhold it indefinitely, while simultaneously launching wars abroad to create a diversion.

II. Trump's abuses of power and state censorship of free speech

President D. Trump has abused his power as president in many areas, especially concerning the independence of the Department of Justice. For instance, he named his personal lawyer as deputy attorney general in the DOJ.

He has weaponized the U.S. legal and judiciary system and the entire U.S. government with arbitrary charges against perceived 'political enemies', to exact revenge and retribution, at taxpayers' expense.

Donald Trump has also been abusing the presidential power to pardon. He extended it to hundreds of convicted supporters, some of whom are political donors, while some others are very close to the financial interests of his private business organization and of his immediate family enterprises. (N. B.: He made more than 1,500 reversals of court sentences by decree in one year, an all-time record.)

- On the issue of immigration, while it is true that a country has the right to select its immigrants, the way the Trump administration has launched cruel pursuits of people already living in the U.S. raises eyebrows.

Indeed, to have people arrested by the U.S. Immigration Police (ICE) armed masked goons and having them placed in cages that serve as concentration camps, at home or abroad, can be considered cruel, befitting of a police state. Some Americans have even been killed in a horrible fashion.

It is worth noting that many features of D, Trump's radical political agenda and the use of authoritarian and bullying tactics were outlined in the so-called 'Project 2025', (also known as the 2025 Presidential Transition Project). This is a 920-page political plan to profoundly upend the U.S. federal government.

Indeed, the central objective of the plan is "building a governing agenda, not just for next January (2025) but long into the future."

True to his self-centered and authoritarian approach to politics, and contrary to previous American presidents, President D. Trump does not consider himself to be the president of all Americans, but only of those who support him. In so doing, he has stirred up division, hatred and fear in his country.

Moreover, while ignoring the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, he has often attempted to suppress free speech for his political adversaries.

Furthermore, one must also mention his repeated hostile remarks and insults, and constant 'ad hominem' mafia-like threats against anyone, including journalists, intellectuals, artists and television presenters who dare to criticize him or his team, thus negating their fundamental right to free political speech.

This is particularly the case of court vendettas or other pressures and threats by an ego-driven Trump administration against American media outlets, some related to public licenses to operate, to incite them to fire stand-up comics who make comments on some of D. Trump's behavior or statements, in order to intimidate and silence them.

III. Trump's attacks against the U.S. Constitution and his political corruption

The United States has an excellent constitution, so designed as to prevent despots, tyrants and special interests from taking over the government. This was done by enshrining in the constitution the principle of the separation of powers and a system of checks and balances.

However, since his January 2025 inauguration as U.S. president, D. Trump has ignored such constitutional protections and has centralized most important levers of political power in the White House.

In so doing, D. Trump has demonstrated that he has no intention to respect his oath of office to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

- Donald Trump and his record level of political corruption
- The New York Times conducted an investigation into the extent of Donald Trump's political corruption. For instance, the newspaper analyzed how some 346 of D. Trump's post-election donors received benefits from the new Trump administration in 2025, in exchange for more than half a billion dollars in contributions.

Everything seems to indicate that politician Trump is the most corrupt president in U.S. history.

How the U.S. Supreme Court has contributed to the decline of democracy in the United States

In June 2008, January 2010 and July 2024, a majority of judges on the U.S. Supreme Court issued three important constitutional decisions.

a. In the first case, the decision concerned a limited personal right to bear arms in public, in order to be able to "join a well-regulated militia." Indeed, the Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution reads as follows: "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the People to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

However, in the June 26, 2008 decision in District of Columbia v. Heller, a 5-4 Republican majority interpreted the individual right to keep and bear arms as a nearly absolute right. In effect, the Republican majority substituted the objective of "self-defense within the home"r the objective of being able to join a "well-regulated militia", thereby significantly expanding the right to keep and bear arms.

b. In the second case, in a judgment rendered on January 21, 2010, again by a majority of 5 judges against 4, Citizens United v. FEC, the decision dealt with the right of corporations and unions to spend almost unlimited amounts of money in elections, based on the argument that 'spending money' was a "form of expression". This right should not be uniquely the attribute of citizens eligible to vote, but must, according to the Court, be extended to legal organizations. However, in politics, money is much more than an 'expression', it is above all a means to gain political power and influence elected officials.

In the third instance, on July 1st, 2024, the U.S. Supreme Court rendered a landmark decision, which was most favorable to the current occupant of the White House.

Indeed, a divided 6-3 Court ruled, in the case of Trump v. United States, that an American sitting president has a broad immunity from prosecution for criminal acts committed in the course of his official duties, thus violating the ancient rule that 'no man is above the law'. And let's not forget that Donald Trump is the only former or sitting U.S. president who has been convicted of criminal charges.

[N. B.: Among the nine current judges on the U.S. Supreme Court, six (Roberts, Thomas, Alito, Gorsuch, Kavanaugh, Barrett) were nominated by a Republican president and three (Kagan, Sotomayor, Brown) were nominated by a Democrat president.]

Trump's economic policies based on isolationism and protectionism against other countries

In terms of international economic policy, the current U.S. president has undertaken to rely on the blunt force of regulation and of unilateral and arbitrary import taxes. His objective seems to be to dismantle the 80-year-long, post WWII multilateral economic system, since 1945, and to replace it with a self-serving unilateral and isolationist American system.

To put such a vision in practice, on February 2, 2025, President D. Trump launched a global trade war against most of the trading nations of the world, including neighboring countries that had long standing trade agreements with the U.S.

He uses many pretexts and justifications for the unilateral imposition of high and whimsical tariffs on imports from a host of countries and to circumvent existing domestic laws by decrees.

VI. Trump's illegal military attacks against sovereign countries

In the area of military affairs, on September 6, 2025, President D. Trump signed a decree to change the name of the U.S. Department of Defense to the Department of War. Such an aggressive designation would seem to be more in line with his personal belief that "might makes right" and might better suit his military deployments at home or abroad.

On January 3, 2026, D. Trump used the U.S. military to launch an illegal and undeclared war against Venezuela.

The goal was to create chaos and rob Venezuela of its oil reserves, the largest in the world, and also to prevent China from buying Venezuelan oil, a casus belli.

This makes seven countries that the Trump administration bombed illegally in only one year: Somalia, Nigeria, Iran, Yemen, Iraq, Syria and Venezuela.

1. Trump sees the world through the eyes of a 19th-century potentate, when a handful of militarized empires relied on extortion to divide the world among themselves, at gunpoint.

It's not surprising that the United States has now fallen to near the bottom of the Global Peace Index of countries, according to a recent report by the Institute for Economics & Peace (IEP).

Conclusions

It should be obvious by now, after a first year of a second term more extremist and chaotic than the first, that Donald Trump is an out-of-control, impulsive and irresponsible individual who would seem to be unfit to hold a high position of authority and decision-making as head of a government.

Indeed, after one full year in office, Donald Trump, with his de facto one-man U.S. federal government in his image, has been an agent of division at home, and of chaos and destruction abroad. His actions have negatively affected the lives of millions of Americans and of citizens in other countries. Some have paid with their lives.

Under Trump, the U.S. government seems to have fallen into a state of moral decay.

This ranges from the establishment of concentration camps to illegal military interventions against other countries, in order to intimidate them and to seize through force their natural resources. That amounts to a predatory behavior and in morality, that is just sheer robbery.

In politics, for the first time in its history, the United States has an occupant in the White House who openly professes to disregard the letter and spirit of the American Constitution, which he took an oath to respect and preserve. This could be enough to disqualify him to be President.

In economics, the D. Trump regime policies have been most chaotic, since January 20, 2025. They are interventionist, isolationist, imperialist and colonialist. Many of them are improvised, misguided and disruptive.

Therefore, the general conclusion is that under the autocratic regime of Donald Trump, the American federal government and its policies have de facto become a serious threat and a danger to the democratic American people and to the civilized world.

All Government Is Dictatorial Because All Government Is Totalitarian

By Gary D. Barnett
GaryDBarnett.com

December 20, 2025

“It is hard to determine whether the brazen brashness of the bureaucrats or toxic passivity of the public has been more shocking.”

~ James Tunney, TechBondAge: Slavery of the Human Spirit

First and foremost, let me define terms and clarify language for all those who will assume opinions about the title of this essay without first thinking. I am not saying that every country that has a government (all countries) is a pure dictatorship, as that would indicate that one man (a dictator) had absolute power over each country. What I am attempting to describe is that all government is dictatorial, in that regardless of the political structure, whether monarchy, socialist, communist, fascist, democratic, or other, the rule under any government is isolated among a very few, (including democracy/republic) which is in most cases likely an oligarchical rule, but one in which rule by these few is based on a single agreed upon and arranged objective, or single ideological agenda. In essence, since government is strictly autocratic by its very nature, and totalitarian in its method, it has to be dictatorial in its mind-set.

So why do so many continue to laud, worship, and support government and rule? Why do so many seek a master to lord over them instead of relying on self-rule based on moral principle? The continuous exercise of ‘choosing’ political ‘leaders’ is asinine, but it is also incredibly telling of a society bent on its own enslavement. It always boils down to choosing the lesser of evils, of which both sides agree is the case about each other; and of course as has been said before, they are both correct. The act of voting itself is, and has always been, a scam purposely created by the ruling class to fool the fools into believing that they have a say in their own servitude. This ‘thinking’ of course is pure insanity.

Since the objective of the entirety of the tyrannical ruling class is to guarantee that their (political class) speech is all that is left available, leaving the masses to choose only between accepted State narratives, the resulting attitude of the people necessarily becomes a ‘choice’ of accepting one or another form of propaganda, which eventually destroys all individual curiosity and intellect. Indoctrination, followed by propaganda, and on a constant basis throughout life, is the method used to subdue populations. This tactic could not be successful without ‘public’ (government) schooling systems, governmental coercion, generational administration, and media control by the State. What this means is that government is always and forever the most virulent enemy of the people.

If we propel forward to the current condition in this country, one would be hard-pressed to not consider jumping off the nearest bridge. Of course, the middleman between the real power and the people is this heinous government, and total insanity has taken over all aspects of this governing system. One glance is enough to see through the hype, and view the absolute absurdity that surrounds us. Accept it, this nation-state and most all that is happening is based on pure fraud, fakery, economic destruction and purposeful reset, mass surveillance, digitization of everything, war, murder, genocide; all at the hands of this criminal cabal. All at once:

- Trump is on the verge of all-out aggressive war against Venezuela
- Trump's total support of Israeli genocide of children
- Trump's arbitrary first degree murder by blowing up boats in Caribbean
- Trump's martial law takeover of U.S. cities
- Inflation and prices are out of control
- ICE goons terrorizing immigrants and citizens alike
- Complete deportation madness
- Trump war threats against Mexico and Columbia
- Epstein files game-playing
- Trillion dollar military insanity
- Multiple fake shootings and assassinations (Likely CIA/FBI collusion)
- AI, biometrics, Digital ID, blanket surveillance, back door CBDC/stable coins
- Tyrannical travel restrictions
- Tariff (tax extortion) madness
- Trump's Nationalization of private industry at taxpayer expense
- Trump policy and contract awards to enrich himself, his family, and supporters

Obviously, this is just the tip of the iceberg, but then again, this is Trump's first year in office. I cannot imagine that he will finish his term, even though his largest Israeli contributor, (his owner) Miriam Adelson, has offered to pay him $250 million (quarter of a billion) to illegally run for a third term in 2028. Well, he does know who his controllers are, and certainly bows to their wants, (orders) and makes sure to pay them back with extreme interest from the pockets of U.S. taxpayers.

As I stated last year:

"Let me be perfectly clear; a collapse of this country's false authority madness is absolutely necessary in order for any sanity or freedom to exist. There are many downsides to this needed upheaval, as what is required to eliminate the massive problems inherent in empire, is not a new governing system with different people, but a mass moral awakening and a complete economic collapse; the elimination of all ruling factions, military presence, enforcement systems, destruction of current banking, especially of the central bank, and the annihilation of anything that is connected with the false belief in 'democracy.' The reason a total and broad-based collapse is required, is because nothing less will motivate this weak, dependent, and captured society to become self-responsible."

Government is nothing more than a totalitarian group dictatorship. Government, all government, equals tyrannical rule and enslavement of the masses, while the 'claimed' elite class sits above in luxury, wealth, and power. This is the way of the world, but it does not have to end in this manner. All real power does rest with the people, but only so long as they assert and defend that power against all who would challenge them. This requires individual participation in dissent against the State en masse. That has not yet happened, but it must if liberty is to be restored and retained.

“In every age it has been the tyrant, the oppressor and the exploiter who has wrapped himself in the cloak of patriotism, or religion, or both to deceive and overawe the People.”

~ Eugene Victor Debs
